EDITOR'S COLUMN

John Weir, Ph.D.

We regret to inform you that Sheva Feld, President-elect for 2006, has found it necessary to resign from that position. A message from her to the membership is on Page 2. Kudos and gratitude are due for her diligent efforts on our behalf this year.

Bethany Miller alerts all of you (P. 13) to save the evening of November 3 for the annual meeting of the Information and Referral Committee.

Mark Kamena details (P. 11) some of the many benefits available to CPA members, including access to dental, vision and, yes, even health insurance!

What is the Marin Medical Reserve Corps? Nancy Haugen tells you on Page 12, and additional information is in Ann Buscho's Meeting Minutes on Page 9.

Beth Tabakin reminds us (P.3) to reserve space at the Fred Luskin 6 CEU presentation on October 14. And how about a trip to Big Sur? MCPA's own Patricia Frisch announces (P.5) a CEU Reichean trip to Esalen in November.

And last, a student searches for a psychological assistant supervisor (P.13)

A Message to Members from the 2006 President-Elect

Dear MCPA Membership,

I have been inundated for the last couple of months with some significant life changes in addition to my already very full plate, and have been churning with thoughts of how to balance it all, and still take care of myself and my daughter, my top priorities. Although I do take my commitments very seriously, after much consideration and angst, I realize I must step down from the role of president-elect. It would be a disservice to MCPA, and to me, if I were to carry it out, as I would not be able to give it my best.

I have enjoyed organizing the first two dinner/speaker gatherings this year, and I look forward to seeing many of you at future events. I will assist with organizing the October business meeting and the December holiday party gathering, although I will not be in a lead role.

I wish you a very smooth transition filling in behind me; I know there are a lot of wonderful MCPA members who could do a fabulous job---please do consider getting more involved if you are not already! Thank you for your support and understanding.

Sheva Feld, PhD

President's Message Joanie Gillispie, Ph.D.

Joanie's Busy Summer

Once upon a time, preoccupied with a heavy burden I went to a psychologist*. He listened only for a few seconds and then said, "Joanie, what would you tell a patient to do?" I'm worried when I hear the words: 'too busy' and I hear that a lot. There's the 24-hour rule (a temporal equal opportunity employer) and death (again, a temporal equal opportunity employer). Our perception of time speeds up as we get older and here we are half way through the year of '06. (At 10 years old, SUMMER = 2.5% of your life; At age 50, SUMMER = .5% of your life). I'm gong to Peru, chasing after an offspring who works for Engineers without Borders. No electricity, no water, no lights, no health care...hmmmmm, they'll have a lot to teach me about my plugged-in easy life in Marin.

Speaking of lessons, thanks to Mark Kamena's advocacy and MCPA's Governmental Affairs Committee Rep. In April, Beth Tabakin and I accompanied Mark to Sacramento to attend CPA's Leadership Day. We met with our legislators and talked shop, e.g., psychology, but first we had to explain what psychologists do. Not only were they on board with our concerns (parity, practice issues, and prevention) but they all had a story to tell about their experience with mental health. Yes! Your Elected Representatives do listen but most of us are silent. Why is it that Psychologists are at the bottom of the pile of health professionals who contribute to important political issues, especially concerning health care? Let's rule-out that it has something to do with being Too Busy. You have a voice and with email there is no excuse not to let it be heard? Check out what Mark has to say in this Newsletter.

Speaking of contributions, the San Diego Psychological Association is asking for other chapters to donate to a Silent Auction. All proceeds will go to Psychology Shield. Do you have a talent or a talking toaster to offer? They will accept “offers outside the box”. Participation can be online and all offers considered. (Email Lori Magnusson, co-chair GAC SDPA drmag@cts.com ).

Your Board likes its busy-ness, working on your behalf. Nancy Haugen, our Disaster Response Chair offers ways we can help our communities, ourselves, and patients in the event of a disaster, in advance. Check out what Nancy has to say. Finally, much appreciation to Sheva Feld for her work thus far in planning our Dinner Speaker meetings. She will be stepping down from her post as President-Elect; we will miss her energy in planning collegial opportunities and wish her well. We had a record turn out for John Deri, MD and Lonnie Barbach, Ph.D., local professionals who were willing to share themselves with us.

Wiggle your toes in warm sand or see how far you can spit a watermelon seed. This summer I challenge us to get busier in a life that resonates with meaning and wellness before we get Too Busy. Joanie

* I did shop around though ☺.

Past President
Grace Rogers, Ph.D.

What is MCPA????? The M stands for Marin and CPA stands for California Psychological Association. Thus MCPA is the Marin County chapter of the state organization. We have members who live here and work elsewhere and we have some members who practice both in Marin and other locations. As our name implies, most members have a major practice exposure here in Marin. We also have members who are at various stages in their educational and training path, and members who are supportive from the other end of their careers. All members have interests and talents that cover quite a range. For more information on membership categories contact our Membership Chair, Roberta Seifert, Ph.D., 457-1777.

MCPA tries hard to address the interests of local psychologists. We can only do that effectively if you both join our activities and join our leadership efforts. There are many ways to serve our profession locally, and I encourage you to investigate them at any one of our events. You can obtain a list of events, including dates and places, on our website, which is listed below. Also important to consider is contributing to Board activities, for it is the Board that makes happen what local psychologists indicate to them that they want.

I look forward to seeing you at our upcoming events.

If you have information that needs to be put on our website, please let me know, as my job this year is to keep the website updated.

Our webpage can be accessed through www.marin.calpsy.net/psy.htm

Minutes of the MCPA Board Meeting, 5/24/2006 Ann Buscho, Ph.D.

PRESENT: Mark Kamena, Roberta Seifert, Beth Tabakin, Grace Rogers, Joanie Gillispie, Ann Buscho, Fred Rozendal, John Weir, Sylvia Mills, Nancy Haugen, Bethany Miller, Sue Fleckles

ABSENT: Keith Sutton, Stacey Rodgers, Christine Gazulis

GUEST(S): Chief Brian Waterbury, Marin Medical Reserve Corps

1. Call to Order & Review Agenda: Joanie Gillispie opened meeting at 7:05 p.m.
2. Minutes from last meeting approved. Joanie Gillispie moved, Roberta Seifert seconded, M/S/P
3. Fred Rozendal reported on the budget. The major expenses are the CE workshop and the website design, which may push us to the break-even point. The organization has reserves. It is anticipated that expenses will exceed the budget by the end of the year. The last speaker-dinner was profitable and the next speaker dinner is already sold out with 40 attendees.
4. Discussion of purchase of microphone for MCPA. Board agreed to authorize purchase of microphone within a budget of $500. Moved by Ann Buscho, Seconded by Beth Tabakin, M/S/P. Joanie will check Bananas at Large, Roberta will check with Comp USA and Office Depot, and emails will follow.
5. Mark Kamena presented his report on Government Affairs. He described APAPractice.org as a way to communicate with legislators on issues related to psychology practice or mental health. CPA has set up a list-serve for members. CPA is not able to get health insurance for members, but was able to get dental, vision, home and auto insurance. Contact Mark if you are interested in health insurance, because "there may be a way." 60% of our MCPA members are also CPA members, which is above average.
6. Chief Brian Waterbury presented to the Board. He has expertise in Disaster Preparedness. (He retired after 34 years with San Rafael Fire Dept.) He spoke about the Marin Medical Reserve Corps, similar to Red Cross, which deals with the medical professions, i.e., doctors, dentists, psychologists. It has been in Marin for about a year. To date, there are 500+ medical professionals signed up to be volunteers in a disaster.

It is based through the Surgeon General's Office, but the idea is that during a major disaster it takes a long time for a national response. The idea was to organize at the local level so that when a disaster happens, the local professionals can mobilize and respond more quickly, especially when the hospitals reach their "surge capacity." Disasters could range from tsunamis, avian (bird) flu, earthquakes, terrorism, floods, tornadoes, fires, etc. The plan involves setting up teams geographically, who would assemble in certain locations, and the injured would come to those sites. In the case of an infectious pandemic, the Medical Reserve Corps would distribute vaccines or treatments. They would also set up field hospitals in the parking lots of the three Marin hospitals as a triage function. Conditions could likely be poor, e.g., no power, etc. The Corps is open to everyone who is willing to get involved. The Chief would like to make Marin a national model of the Corps. He would like to see volunteers proactive, e.g., reaching out to the community before there is a disaster. An example is that we could educate people in advance of an avian flu pandemic, to prevent mass panic. There is a national website www.medicalreservecorps.gov for more information, and applications are available via the newsletter. Applications can be emailed to Nancy Haugen. MCPA voted to partner with the Medical Reserve Corps and to endorse the partnership.

7. Ann Buscho presented Keith Sutton's proposal for an MCPA list-serve which he has set up and which he will moderate. Emails will be sent by Roberta Seifert to the members inviting them to join the new list-serve. Mark sends out announcements to members via email, if they have signed up for the service.
8. Discussed the vacancies created on the Board by Sophia Reinders' and Sheva Feld's resignations. Several proposals were considered. Mark Kamena will work on the holiday party. The annual Business Meeting is October 25, and the Holiday Party is December 8th. Grace Rogers volunteered to organize the annual meeting.
9. Beth Tabakin, CEU committee, let Board know CEUs for upcoming events. At the Speaker dinner meeting, with Lonnie Barbach on June 2, the committee (Laura Dunning, Christine Gazulis, and Beth Tabakin) will handle CEU's and separate checks for CEU's ($15) should be made out to SCRC. CEUs for the Fred Luskin event in September do not require a separate check. The price is included in the workshop fee. People requesting CEUs must sign-in and complete an evaluation form before receiving their certificate of attendance. There will be a sign-in sheet specifically for the CEUs.
10. Membership: Roberta Seifert reported that we have 122 members now.

NEXT MEETING: Wednesday, July 12, 2006 at 7:00 p.m. in San Rafael.

Meeting adjourned at 8:45 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,
Ann Buscho

Mark Kamena, Ph.D.

APA has a website that allows us to communicate with our legislators on issues related to psychologists in an easy and fast way. This website does not require that you be an APA member and computer literacy is not required; just use the following instructions:

1. Get on the internet and in the Address line enter "apapractice.org"
2. On the right side, enter your zip code and click "Go"
3. Enter you State code (CA) and click "Go"
4. Under Issues and Legislation click "View"
5. Click on "Legislation Alerts and Updates"
6. Click on the issue that you want to discuss (e.g., "Support Psychology-Based Recovery Model in California State Hospitals")
7. Next to "Take Action Now," click "Go"
8. Enter a Subject for your email (e.g., Thanks for supporting the DMH Budget)
9. Click Red Arrows to insert whatever text you want
10. Type your name and fill in the "Sender Information" (which can be saved for future emails)
11. Click "Send Message" and you are done!

If you are an APA member, you can log in and access other information such as sending press releases to local media (newspapers, radio stations, TV), get your legislator's voting history on issues related to mental health, links to local legislators, practitioner directory and lots more.

CPA has endorsed a proposal to extend the Board of Psychology for one year with an administrative review which would extend it for six to eight years after that. It seems to be the simplest way to allow BOP to continue without concern over merging with other boards and leading to a lack of differentiation among therapists.

The CE credits offered by reading an article in the California Psychologist and then taking an on-line test have been well received. Members report that the process is simple to follow and the price is right (free to CPA members).

The CPA convention held at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco was a great success, both professionally and financially. Over 700 people attended and emails from students stated that they felt "well greeted," "welcoming," and that CPA is a "wonderful organization." CPA was successful in obtaining dental and vision insurance through The Benefits Store, discounts on home and auto insurance through Liberty Mutual, but was not able to get health insurance as an organization. Certain laws actually make it difficult for non-profits to offer health coverage. The one requirement that we lacked was having 1000 enrollees; that is, already signed-up. Thus, just a promise that we would have 1000 enrollees (an enrollee could be a family member) was not sufficient. However, our broker has come up with a creative way of meeting that requirement, so if you are interested in obtaining health insurance, please contact me.

Treasurer's Report Fred Rozendal, Ph.D.

As of June 25, 2006, MCPA has $22,644.98 on hand.

Using the MCPA year (Nov. 1 to Oct. 31), we are currently seven months into the MCPA year. We have taken in $12,228.42 to date and spent $9,803.44.

We have three large unreimbursed expenses in the remainder of the year of about $1200 for telephone, $3000 for developing a web site, and $400 for a microphone and amplifier for speaker dinner meetings. All told we anticipate spending $2200 more than our income.

One other financial investment (income and expense) is a continuing education program this fall.

If you want a more complete copy of the MCPA budget, please contact Fred Rozendal.

Disaster Response Nancy Haugen, Ph.D.

The Office of Disaster Preparedness in the county predicts that the AVIAN BIRD FLU will be IN MARIN BY THE END OF THE SUMMER. We, as psychologists, need to prepare for this and other disasters now. You can:

1. Choose to join the Marin Medical Reserve Corps which operates nationally under the Surgeon General's office. It recruits doctors, nurses, dentists, psychologists, and veterinarians to help in case of any disaster. The MCPA has committed to becoming partners with them. Call for application 492-1171.
2. Make sure you have taken advantage of the Red Cross training available and become part of their support team.
3. You will need food and water (3 gallons of water per person per day) for 14 days. They expect several waves following the first emergence of the flu.
4. Many services will be cut since many people will not be going to work. Plan to do many of your sessions over the phone.
5. Hand washing is the major deterrent to becoming infected.
6. You will want to be able to help your clients and to instruct your community about how to deal with anxiety and panic.
7. Make sure you are informed and have access to the departments in this county that will be involved with providing services.

More information will be emailed to you as we continue to organize our group and interface with the agencies in the county. Feel free to email me with any questions or suggestions nancy@haugen.com

Information and Referral

Bethany Miller, Psy.D.

SAVE THE DATE!

The annual I&R meeting will be held on November 3rd at the Corte Madera Town Center from 6:30-8:30 P.M. Current I&R members will receive a renewal packet in the mail in September. Please contact Bethany Miller (518-7999) if you would like to join I&R for 2007. I&R is open to licensed psychologists who have been a member of MCPA for at least one year.
